course_id	title	description
1110	Computer Science	Introduction to computing, algorithms, problem-solving, and programming fundamentals. Covers software development concepts, data structures, and computational thinking.
1111	Data Science	Foundations of data analysis using statistics, databases, and Python/R. Includes data cleaning, visualization, and basic machine-learning principles.
1112	Multimedia Computing	A creative and technical course focused on digital media production, including graphics, animation, video editing, web design, and interactive applications.
1113	Journalism	Principles of news writing, media ethics, storytelling, and digital reporting. Includes practical training in interviews, research, and multimedia journalism.
1114	Law	Introductory legal studies covering legal systems, contracts, constitutional law, and the basic principles of legal interpretation and case analysis.